

29 SEPTEMBER: TRURO SCHOOL NEWS AND UPDATES

Dear Parents, Guardians and Carers,

Buenas tardes! Dohajydh da!

It has been a pleasure reflecting on the past week as we celebrated the European Day of Languages. Throughout this week, our students and staff came together to celebrate linguistic diversity, foster cultural understanding, and promote the importance of language learning.

This week not only celebrated the diversity of languages within Europe but also emphasised the broader benefits of language learning. Learning a new language fosters cognitive development, and promotes empathy and intercultural understanding.

In Chapel, Rev Helen and Mr Vanstone encouraged pupils to use their language skills to greet their peers. Pupils from 3rd Year and Sixth Form recited the Lord's Prayer in French, Spanish and, beyond Europe, Cantonese. This was followed by the hymn, "Here I am Lord" where we were encouraged to sing the chorus in French, German and Spanish.

Throughout the week, pupils have also enjoyed participating in many activities such as international culture quizzes and, in a lunchtime club, a game called 'Back to Madrid' that helps revise and improve sentence structures.

The literal 'flavour' of language was also evident in our dining room this week where pupils and staff tucked into European dishes including coq au vin, bigos stew, sauerkraut, risotto and schnitzel. My heartfelt gratitude goes to all staff and pupils involved.

As ever, elsewhere, our community has continued to be very busy with exciting educational curriculum visits including 5th Year Geography and Geology fieldwork at Boscastle and Upton Cross respectively, and 1st Year Religious Studies trip to the Eden project. Well done also to our GCSE music solo performers for their excellent concert in the Chapel on Monday evening.

This Sunday sees Rev Helen presiding over our Chapel Anniversary Service, which this year, is celebrating the 96th anniversary of the opening of our beloved School Chapel. The service begins at 12pm and there will be refreshments afterwards. In the words of the Marty Haugen hymn, 'All are welcome' and I look forward to seeing some of you there.

Finally, it seems appropriate to sign off in the spirit of European languages week.

Ein schÖnes Wochenende!

Bon week-end!

¡Que pasen un buen fin de semana!

Warm regards,
Shaun Pope
Deputy Head (Academic)

Welcoming our New Leiths Students

We are delighted to announce the arrival of our newest cohort of Lower Sixth students to the Level 3 Leiths Extended Certificate in Professional Cookery. This comprehensive program aims to equip students with essential skills and practical knowledge for future employment opportunities and for everyday life.

Students will have the opportunity to explore the concept of local sourcing, and understand the importance of using fresh, locally produced ingredients. Through hands-on training, they will develop basic knife skills, a fundamental aspect of any professional cook's repertoire and will study a broad range of methods, starting with soups, sauces, pastry, breads and cakes.

In addition to the Leiths Level 3 cohort, we are pleased to welcome to our Cookery School a significant number of students to our co-curricular course programme which includes 'Seasonaires', 'Cooking for Life' and 'Patisserie'. These provide students with the opportunity to develop core skills and expand their culinary horizons.

We extend our warmest welcome to all our students embarking on their culinary journeys. We are confident that their dedication, combined with the expertise of our team, will lead to a successful and enriching experience in the world of professional cookery.

Truro School Receives Healthy Cornwall Award

We are delighted to share that Truro School has been awarded Cornwall Council's Healthy Cornwall Award in recognition of our commitment and contribution to creating a healthy workspace for all at Truro School. Our people are at the heart of our strategy and of our success as a school. This award recognises our continued pledge to ensure the health and wellbeing of our people is a top priority.

A huge thanks to Beth Haynes who played a pivotal role in this award.

5th Year Boscastle Field Trip

All three 5th Year classes ventured to Boscastle this week as a part of their Geography GCSE fieldwork.

The pupils were there to study mitigating flood risks in the area. During their visit, they measured velocity, gradient and drew field sketches of flood management schemes. Some pupils showed great initiative in using their mobile phones as clinometers to help them with their investigations.

The 5th Years were all beautifully behaved and passers by commented how engaged the students were in their research. Well done to everyone who worked so hard in this valuable learning opportunity. A huge thank you to Mrs Wormald for these stunning photos and to all of the Geography team for making these trips possible.

Gold, Red, Blue and Green Donned for House Assemblies

Over 100 years on from their inception, our pupils and staff gathered in their houses for the first House Assembly of the year this morning.

The new 1st years were welcomed into their houses; Vinter, Wickett, Smith and School, with staff looking on, resplendent in their respective colours. The house system was set up to inspire school spirit and through friendly rivalry, helps to create a sense of teamwork and camaraderie in our students across all year groups of the Senior School.

We look forward to sharing news from house events across the year, including the Top House Quiz and House Swimming Galas and keeping you up to date with which house is leading the charge for 2023/24.

European Languages Inspire the School

This week, Rev Helen delivered a thought-provoking assembly about the European Day of Languages, emphasizing the importance of language in shaping our perceptions of the world. During assembly, pupils were encouraged to use their language skills to greet their peers and pupils from 3rd Year and Sixth Form recited the Lord's Prayer and poems in French and Spanish.

Throughout this week, pupils also participated in activities such as an international culture quiz during form time, and a lunchtime club played a game called 'Back to Madrid' to revise and improve sentence structures.

The Catering Team have also been inspired by International Language Week with delicious lunchtime dishes this week including coq au vin, bigos stew, risotto and schnitzel.

Sixth Form Open Evening

There was a tremendous buzz at the Sixth Form Open Evening as current pupils, prospective Sixth Formers and their families explored our school campus. As well as hearing from the Head and Sixth Form Team in the Burrell, our current and prospective students had the opportunity to meet and talk A-levels with our Heads of Departments, learn about our innovative Sixth Form Diploma, and hear from our current students about Sixth Form at Truro School. Thank you to everyone who made the evening possible.

If you were unable to attend last night, please visit our website for more information about the Sixth Form at Truro School and if you are interested in attending a private tour or registering your interest for the 2024 intake, please contact our Admissions Team admissions@truroschool.com

New Progressive Dance Programme

We are delighted to announce our partnership with Cornwall Dance Studios to introduce a progressive dance programme, involving a Graded Ballet and Graded Contemporary Modern Jazz syllabus.

Pupils will have the opportunity to attend the specialist IDTA graded sessions at Truro School in addition to our existing dance offerings which include Wednesday afternoon and Friday evening sessions.

Cornwall Dance School is a leading dance school run by Lisa Ann, Dance Principal and Teacher. Lisa and her team's enthusiastic energy have proved incredibly popular with our Senior and Prep groups, and we look forward to opening up these dance opportunities across our school.

For more information please contact co-curriculum@truroschool.com.

From Student to Teacher: Isobel Dennett CO19

It was fantastic to welcome back Isobel who returned to School recently to undertake teacher training practice as part of her PGCE at the University of Exeter.

Isobel shared with us her reflections on the experience back at her old school and what her PGCE currently entails.

You can read here story in full here.

Book Club Trip to North Cornwall Book Festival

Our Book Club had an exciting trip to the North Cornwall Book Festival on Friday. The day was a reward for their fantastic commitment to Book Club and for their reading programmes last year. The Festival took place at St Endellion and included inspiring and fascinating workshops led by three authors.

The first workshop was with Nick Bowling who, along with being an author, is a musician, stand-up comic and Latin teacher. The next was with Lou Abercrombie who is the author of two children's books. Lou's workshop focused on creating characters and teaching pupils how to build their own unique plots.

The last workshop was with Bex Hogan CO99 who also happens to be an old Truronian. Bex shared the story of her gripping and highly acclaimed fantasy adventure series with the pupils during her workshop, as well as showing them how to make their own fantasy worlds. It was especially exciting for the group to meet her having attended the same school.

An Evening of Games and Laughter

Parents came together for an evening of games and laughter. While their children showcased their dancing talents next door, parents took centre stage in the Dining Room where they took part in an arrange of games and activities.

The room buzzed with excitement at the friendly competition, with quizzes and bingo creating a fun atmosphere that allowed parents to make new connections.

Thanks to the Probus Players for hosting and for our Events team for supporting this parent event.

Groovy Beats and Unforgettable Memories

There were groovy beats and unforgettable memories made at the 1st and 2nd Year Disco. Supported by our school's Charity Committee, it was a fun event that brought our younger years together for a night of entertainment and fundraising.

The silent disco allowed everyone to dance to their own tune while maintaining a vibrant atmosphere. Adding to the fun, the Charity Committee shared their glittery face painting skills and served refreshments to keep the dance moves flowing.

Thank you to all the staff and students whose contributions made the evening an unforgettable celebration.

Chloroplast Decolourisation Experiments

The Upper Sixth Form students conducted a Biology practical in the lab as part of their A-Level requirements. The objective of the experiment was to examine the effect of ammonium hydroxide on the decolourisation time of chloroplasts using DCPIP. The DCPIP goes from blue to colourless when it accepts electrons released by the chlorophyll. All three teams were pleased to report their experiments were successful and will be going away to analyse their data and draw their conclusions.

Dancing to Success

Well done to Georgia, who joined Truro School this September, who has achieved fantastic success at two national dance competitions this year, Starz UK and Move it Shake it.

Georgia performed a solo dance routine in lyrical style, duo arco and group lyrical, achieving 1st, 2nd and 3rd places respectively.

Georgia has been dancing since the age of 4 and is very excited to hear about the new dance opportunities at Truro school.

First Fieldtrip for Lower Sixth Geologists

Just three weeks into their A-Level Geology course, our twenty-one Lower Sixth pupils were out in the field for the first time this week.

Exploring the geology of Pendower Beach on the Roseland gave them the perfect opportunity to examine evidence of sedimentary and tectonic processes that occurred over 300 million years ago.

The groups also carried out several specified practical endorsement activities, including locating features in the field on to base maps, measuring the orientation of structures and recording their observations on field sketches.

A huge thank you to Mr Blackie and Miss Hope for the fantastic photos and for making these valuable practical learning experiences possible.

ACHE for Cake

Well done to our ACHE prefects for their successful cake sale at breaktime to raise funds for Macmillan Cancer Support.

It was a fantastic turnout with not a crumb left in sight.
