

05 JANUARY 2024: TRURO SCHOOL NEWS AND UPDATES

Dear Parents, Guardians and Carers,

A new year and a new term bring new opportunities for all. Tomorrow, January 6, is the Feast of the Epiphany, celebrating the Magi's choice to follow their star and seek out the newborn Jesus in Bethlehem.

Rev Helen spoke about the significance of that choice, and by extension the choices we all make, in her start of term service yesterday. She urged pupils to seek wise counsel and influence in their own choices so they can be and become the very best of themselves this term and beyond.

Whilst it was a shame we did not hold the service at Truro Methodist Church as usual, it was a relief for pupils and staff alike that we avoided what would have been some very wet journeys to and from town! The service was in some ways a practical example, therefore, of choice and agility in the face of the unexpected, and consistent with the message of the term and the year.

We continue to encourage your children to flourish, to cultivate courage in their choices, including in the face of the unexpected, and to embrace the increasing responsibility they have for themselves as they move through the School towards what will be so many bright futures.

As this exciting term begins, staff will be devoting time and care to ensuring pupils return to School routines effectively and with purpose.

We are aware that for some of you, and them, the holiday period will have been inspiring and energising, whilst for others it may have been at times genuinely challenging too. That awareness will also shape our approach to the term ahead.

I take this opportunity to thank all our OPS team for the work they have done over the last few weeks to maintain and support the School site and ensure things are ready for the pupils and teaching staff to re-engage with term time.

Wishing you all the best for the term ahead.

Kind regards,

Andy Johnson,
Head of Truro School

05 JANUARY: TRURO SCHOOL NEWS AND UPDATES

Bright Smiles for the New Term

Looking refreshed and ready to face new challenges, Truro School pupils, students and staff returned to site after the Christmas break.

Rev Helen led services in the Chapel, reflecting on predictions and possibilities for the year ahead. She urged our community to make good choices, led by hope, love, joy and peace.

Pupils also gathered for assemblies where year-group challenges and focuses were laid out. These were then developed further in tutor times, providing a chance for reflection and personal goals to be set.

New Year Fireworks

Congratulations to Truro City Council for a successful New Year fireworks extravaganza. At the stroke of midnight, fireworks were launched from the upper School pitches, marking the grand arrival of 2024 in Truro.

Heartfelt thanks to Paul Caruana and his team of dedicated community volunteers, who stepped forward to help clear the debris from pitches ready for the school's reopening this week. Our seismograph also captured the display, exhibiting a maximum amplitude that was 7.5 times greater than the signal received from the Mounts Bay earthquake back in November. Happy New Year!

Monday Cookery - 3rd & 4th Years

We are pleased to be able to open up spaces for the Spring Kitchen Cookery Class which takes place on Mondays as an after school club.

The club runs from 4 - 5:30pm on Mondays and is open to pupils in the 3rd and 4th Years.

Any pupils who are keen to start will need to email Mr Rosenthal in the Cookery School (cookeryschool@truroschoo.com)

Boarding Community Round Up

Last term flew by, with a new cohort of boarders joining our community.

It was an action-packed term filled with many weekend and after-school activities, birthdays, days out and Christmas celebrations.

Our boarding newsletter shares many of last term's highlights.

Boarding Life in Cornwall

Alongside an outstanding education and excellent co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, life at Truro School offers our boarding community access to the benefits of a life in Cornwall.

The West Country is one of the most popular destinations for tourists and UK residents hoping to re-locate. Here at Truro School, we believe that being a boarder in this part of the world offers pupils something special too.

So what is it about Cornwall that makes it such a unique place for our boarders to come?

You can read our article about FIVE things we think make Cornwall best for boarding here.

Boys' Chorister Experience Day and Cushion Concert

SATURDAY 13 JANUARY 2024

Come and experience what it's like to be a chorister in Truro Cathedral Choir!

Get to know the choristers and what they do; stand in the beautiful choir stalls where they sing in the amazing space of the cathedral; explore the crypt where they rehearse; try on a chorister's cassock and surplice and see and hear the mighty cathedral organ being played close up! And, of course, learn music and sing along with the choristers, culminating in performing a concert along with them.

All boys currently in Years 2, 3, 4 and 5 are welcome.

The Truro School Art Collection Goes On An Outing

ROYAL CORNWALL MUSEUM

In the early 1980s David Heseltine, then Head of Art at Truro School, found himself frustrated that the independent status of the school barred it from borrowing artworks from the Cornwall Council Schools Art Collection. He was convinced that the school should begin its own Collection in order that generations of students might learn from looking at the real thing. Today, the Collection encompasses nearly 300 artworks representing a veritable A-Z of late 20th and early 21st century artists, the majority of whom lived and worked in Cornwall and some of whom attained international recognition.

The Collection is rarely seen, and it is only the second time that the Collection has featured in an exhibition at the Royal Cornwall Museum in forty years. The exhibition draws from David's unique personal archive and anecdotal reminiscences that amplify the personal generosity of the many artists whom he visited in their studios who either gifted to the Collection or whom he purchased from.
